

Vocabulary – Food, Containers and Cooking Verbs

Write the foods.

1. What fruit juice (with the same name as its colour) do people usually drink for breakfast? _____
2. Name something white and something black that people add to their food for taste.
_____ and _____
3. The Americans call these fries but in the UK they call them _____.
4. Many people put the juice from this yellow fruit on fish. _____
5. To make a Bolognese sauce you need meat, tomatoes and _____.
6. These come from a chicken and are good to eat for breakfast. _____
7. The animal is called a sheep, but we call the meat _____.
8. This is made from milk and is good to eat in sandwiches or after a meal.

Complete the conversations with the words for quantities or containers.

1. A: Can I have a _____ of water, please?
B: Large or small?
A: Large, please. A litre.
2. A: Please pass me two _____ of bread. I want to make a sandwich.
B: Good idea. And here's a _____ of tuna and some salad to go in it.
3. A: Are you thirsty? Would you like a _____ of iced tea?
B: Yes, please.
4. A: Shall we have kabsa for dinner tonight?
B: Sounds good. Can you get a small _____ of rice at the market?
5. A: Would you like some chocolate?
B: Yes, please, but only a small _____.

Complete the instructions with cooking verbs.

- pour chop mix slice put spread
1. _____ the flour and milk together in a bowl.
 2. _____ the tomatoes in small pieces and cook with the chicken.
 3. _____ some butter on the bread.
 4. _____ some nuts and raisins on top, then serve.
 5. _____ 250 ml of milk into the bowl.
 6. _____ the bread and put it on a plate.