Instructions : Read the story on page 5 (textbook). Then, arrange the sentence strips below in the correct order. Type your answer in the space below.

Man and Lan, Pak Johan's neighbours, were jealous of his success.

The next day, Pak Johan felt devastated because his scarecrow was missing and his greens were eaten.

At midnight, the brothers heard scratching and clawing sounds at their door.

Pak Johan had an organic vegetable farm.

In fear, they saw the headless scarecrow's body.

One night, they stole the scarecrow and hid it.

It caught Lan's neck and he shouted for help, but Man ran away.

He could grow good greens because of his scary scarecrow.

Man saw the scarecrow getting closer and it had a new head which looked like...

That night, Man smashed the scarecrow's head and buried it.
