 • completing sentences • labelling diagrams

Develop your exam skills

info

In the Listening test you will hear a group of people talking about a topic related to education or training. You will be asked to do different tasks in this section, and some of these will require you to identify the ideas and opinions of the individual speakers.

Exam tip

In this kind of question, where there are several speakers, it is useful to identify them as early as possible. Listen carefully and write their names on the exam paper, leaving enough room to make a note of any opinions as well.

Audio

You will hear a group of students talking about a project they are planning to present. Choose the correct letter, a, b or c, to complete the sentences.

- 1 'Families' is

Conclusion

Exam tip

With multiple-choice questions, make sure you read all the options before you choose the answer. Some of the answers may look similar and you should check the details before you decide.

Audio

You will hear two of the students discussing the best way to design a slide. Label the drawing using NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS for each answer.

Audio

Exam tip

Make sure you read all the answers carefully before you listen to the recording. When you have to choose more than one correct answer, it may help you to cross out the wrong answers as you listen.

You will hear the four students discussing their presentation. Choose TWO correct answers (a–e).

What do the students have to decide?

- a how to order the slides
- b who will compare the different families
- c the link between North Africa and the US
- d where the Arabs come from originally
- e when Western culture began in the US
