Snow day

It snowed every year in Charlie's village.

The weather was worse this year. Charlie's school had to close, and parents couldn't go shopping or go to work. It was too dangerous to drive their small car.

"I'd like to make some pancakes but we haven't got any milk or eggs!" Mum said on Monday morning.

"We need toothpaste, too!" Dad said.

"That's OK," said Charlie. "We can get things like that on the Internet! I know a good website!"

"Why doesn't it stop snowing?" said Mum that afternoon. "Oh, I'd like to be on holiday and see the sun! And I want to go and get tickets for the circus today!"

"That's OK," said Charlie, "I can show you pictures of sunny holiday places on the Internet and a website where you can buy circus tickets!"

- 3 On Monday morning, Charlie's mother needed, and his dad needed toothpaste.
- 4 Charlie knew a where people could buy things for the home.
- 5 Charlie found some photos of for his mother to look at on the Internet.

So the family sat round the computer and bought the things they needed and looked at photos.

Then Charlie said, "Now I've got to do my homework. Can you help me, Dad? I've got to write about the moon."

"Sorry, Charlie," Dad said. "I can't help... but look! Here's a good website!"

- 6 For his, Charlie had to write about the moon.
- 7 Charlie's father couldn't Charlie, but he showed him a good website!

- 4 The family had some sandwiches and the first.

Then some pretty little birds flew down to their picnic rug.

"They're hungry too," said Clare. She gave them three grapes and some salad leaves but the birds didn't eat them.

Then one of the birds flew on to Mum's shoulder. She looked at it and said, "Oh, OK!" and gave the birds the last cheese sandwich! They loved it!

"How did you know that?" Clare asked. Mum smiled but didn't say anything. "Mothers understand all kinds of things!" Dad said. "You are brilliant, Mum!" Peter and Clare said.
