

STATEMENTS AND QUESTIONS

EXERCISE 178 – STATEMENTS AND QUESTIONS

Change these statements into questions.

e.g. John was absent yesterday.
Was John absent yesterday?

1. He was playing in the rain. Was he playing in the rain?
2. Wai Fong is beautiful. Is Wai Fong beautiful?
3. They are very rich. Are they very rich?
4. She has a doll. Has she a doll?
5. It is barking now. Is it barking now?
6. They have finished it. Have they finished it?
7. They were singing in the hall.
8. It was Chong Meng's bag.
9. I am very late.
10. The girls were picking flowers.

EXERCISE 179 – STATEMENTS AND QUESTIONS

Change the following negative sentences into questions using the written form e.g. Chee Ming is not coming. Is Chee Ming not coming?

1. She was not at home. Was she not at home?
2. They have not done it. Have they not done it?
3. We have not sold it. Have we not sold it?
4. You are not well. Are you not well?
5. John is not working hard. Is John not working hard?
6. I am not talking loudly. Am I not talking loudly?
7. The children were not there.
8. They are not in school.
9. She was not cooking beef.
10. He has not been there.

EXERCISE 180 – STATEMENTS AND QUESTIONS

Change these statements into questions.

e.g. It will be over soon. Will it be over soon?

1. I shall sell it. Shall I sell it?
2. We shall bring it here. Shall we bring it here?
3. He must tell you. Must he tell you?
4. It would be good. Would it be good?
5. They can run fast. Can they run fast?
6. She could answer it. Could she answer it?
7. They will come again.
8. Peter and I may go now.
9. Birds can fly.
10. He will be angry.

EXERCISE 181 – STATEMENTS AND QUESTIONS

Change these negative sentences into questions using the written form

e.g. It will not rain. Will it not rain?

1. She cannot help us. Can she not help us?
2. He would not take it. Would he not take it?
3. He must not do it. Must he not do it?
4. You will not carry it. Will you not carry it?
5. We shall not sing. Shall we not sing?
6. He could not see it. Could he not see it?
7. They cannot swim.
8. We would not agree.
9. I must not touch it.
10. It will not be ready.

EXERCISE 182 – STATEMENTS AND QUESTIONS

Change these statements into questions.

e.g. He loves to sing. Does he love to sing?

1. She knows your mother. Does she know your mother?
2. He wants to stay here. Does he want to stay here?
3. Chong Meng told you the news. Did Chong Meng tell you the news?
4. They work here. Do they work here?
5. We bought it yesterday.
6. Ann sings well.
7. They came by bus.
8. She took it away.
9. The children like chocolates.
10. It rained heavily last night.

EXERCISE 183 – STATEMENTS AND QUESTIONS

Change these negative sentences into questions using the written form

e.g. Poh Wah does not want it. Does Poh Wah not want it?

1. She does not live here. Does she not live here?
2. They do not work here. Do they not work here?
3. He did not sleep. Did he not sleep?
4. It does not bite. Does it not bite?
5. I did not see it. Did I not see it?
6. She did not listen. Did she not listen?
7. They do not know it. Do they not know it?
8. Tom does not like you.
9. He did not speak.
10. We do not remember.

~ The End ~