

The function of plants

Leaves make food for the plant.

The flower attracts the honeybee.

The roots of a plant absorb water from the soil.

The stem helps the plant stand tall.

Fruits produce seeds to grow new plants.

Plants give us flowers and fruit.

A plant needs sunlight, water, and air to grow.

We get fruits and flowers from plants.