

PRE-READING CORNER

READING

Syllabication

Write the number of syllables (beats or sounds) in each of the words below, after saying the words.

bubble

folklore

orally

forest

resulted

eventually importance

muttered

Compound Words

Break the following words into their two root words. Say each word.

another

however

lifestyle

otherwise

someone

Antonyms

Antonyms are words which are opposite in meaning.

Say the words that are opposite in meaning in each line below.

1. light day darkness
2. day midday night
3. old new tall

LITERACY
READING
Pre-Reading Activity
Syllabication
Multi-Syllables

Remember! Words are made up of syllables. A syllable is a beat or vowel sound. A multi-syllable word is a word with two or more syllables. Do the following multi-syllable word exercises. Your teacher / parent will tell you what to do.

com bined

bub ble

prac tice

sel dom

ad vice

folk lore

pro test ed

lis ten ing

im por tance

COMPONENT:Teachers / Parents Instructions:*Writing:*Reading- Skill Focus: Syllabication (Multi-syllable)

Have the child read each chunk of the word, then blend the chunks together and say the whole word.

Have the child cover the word then write it from memory. Do so, one chunk at a time.