

WEATHER IDIOMS

| ENGLISH IDIOM                   | SPANISH/CATALAN IDIOM | MEANING |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------|---------|
| It's raining cats and dogs      |                       |         |
| Three sheets on the wind        |                       |         |
| A storm in a teacup             |                       |         |
| Every cloud has a silver lining |                       |         |
| My mind is in a fog             |                       |         |
| To have a face like a thunder   |                       |         |
| Head in the clouds              |                       |         |
| Come rain or shine              |                       |         |
| Chase rainbows                  |                       |         |
| To be on cloud nine             |                       |         |