

Subject and Object Pronouns

Subject
I
You
He (Tom)
She (Mary)
It (My car)
We
They

Object
me
you
him her it us
them

Romeo loves Juliet.
He loves her.
Does she love him?

Replace the underlined words with one pronoun.

My mum is with Julia.

I see an elephant and a giraffe.

The cat is playing with my little brother.

My cousins feed the ducks every day.

John and I gave flowers to our mum today.

Dominic is eating a hamburger right now.

Why is Carl feeding that cow?

Jennifer sets the tables every morning.

I don't like my uncle Arnold.

The children are taking their pets to school today.

Jane is going to see Mrs. Marshall.

My brother and I are watching the monkeys.

Adam is with you and me.

Peter and Paul are watching a movie.

David washes his car every Saturday.

Mike needs new shoes.

_____ is with _____.

I see _____.

_____ is playing with _____.

_____ feed _____ every day.

_____ gave _____ to _____ today.

_____ 's eating _____ right now.

Why is _____ feeding _____?

_____ sets _____ every morning.

I don't like _____.

_____ are taking _____ to school today.

_____ is going to see _____.

_____ are watching _____.

_____ is with _____.

_____ are watching _____.

_____ washes _____ every Saturday.

_____ needs _____.