

Build Language Worksheet

Unit 1. Albert's Nest

Name: _____ Class: _____

and

A conjunction is a joining word. It can join words, phrases, or sentences together. The word "and" is a conjunction. We use "and" to join similar ideas or to add information.

word+word	apples and oranges
phrase+phrase	a red flower and the blue sky go to school and make friends sentence+sentence	I am from Korea, and Ben is from the U.K.

(*Remember to add a comma before "and" when two sentences are joined.)

A. Choose the best place where "and" can be used.

- (1) pigs (2) cows (3)
- a bed (1) two (2) chairs (3)
- I speak (1) Korean, (2) she speaks (3) English.

B. Combine two sentences by using a comma and the conjunction "and."

- I likes kiwis. I likes lemons.

→ _____

- Kate goes to the park. Kate plays soccer.

→ _____

- My sister is a math teacher. My brother is a writer.

→ _____