

GRAMMAR REVISION (units 7 & 8)

(A) MODAL VERBS - form sentences. MIND THE TENSES!!!

(1) Lisa / not may / go to the party – PRESENT SIMPLE

.....

(2) they / can / play the piano – WILL FUTURE

.....

(3) he / must / clean his room – PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

.....

(4) we / may / tell a story – PAST PERFECT SIMPLE

.....

(5) you / not must / run faster – PAST SIMPLE

.....

(B) TENSES (incl. modal verbs) – fill in the correct form of the verb MIND THE TENSES

Mr James P. Artwork is an elderly gentleman who loves painting a lot. He (1) (live) in his small cottage for almost 50 years and in this time he (2) (paint) a lot. So far he (3) (can) sell quite some of them and that's why he (4) (never have) any financial problems.

Every morning Mr. Artwork (5) (get) up at around 8 o'clock, (7) (have) a quick breakfast and then he (8) (start) painting. But not today! Today he (9) (pack) seven of his best paintings to take them to the museum. Mr. Artwork (10) (be) friend with the museum curator, Mr. Interest for a couple of year and he (11) (take sometimes) some of his work there so that everybody can admire them.

Last year, for example, there (12) (be) an exhibition in the museum and Mr. Artwork (13) (not only have) some of his work there, but he (14) (also may) give the opening speech. After he (15) (think) a lot about what to say, he (16) (give) an interesting and fun presentation. While Mr Artwork (17) (talk), nobody (18) (sleep), but all the people in the room (19) (listen) carefully. After Mr. Artwork (20) (finish) his speech, some people (21) (clap) their hands, others (22) (shout) "bravo!". All in all, the exhibition (23) (be) very successful!

At the moment Mr Artwork (24) (enter) the museum with his seven paintings. Look! There is Mr Interest who (25) (wait) for him. Both men hope that this exhibition (26) (be) as successful as the last one.

(C) ASK FOR THE UNDERLINED PART OF THE SENTENCE

We always have some sandwiches in the evening.

Our neighbours have left for holiday.

Samantha told us the funniest joke.

My little brother did a lot of nonsense yesterday.

(D) QUANTIFIERS – SO / SUCH

some / any

1. Could you give me paper? – Yes, of course!
2. I didn't find mistakes in your text!
3. It's hard in a new city without friends.
4. Do you have sugar? – No, I am so sorry. I've run out.
5. She never drinks water, but she often drinks juice.
6. There's money in my handbag.
7. My mum can speak French.
8. She bought new clothes, but she didn't get shoes.
9. Have we got bread left? – No, you have to go and buy
10. Can I have more juice? – Sure!

a little / a few

1. Could you bring us water?
2. There's cheese in the fridge.
3. Have you got minutes?
4. I need money.
5. I'm going to London for days next month.
6. These ideas are difficult and only people can understand them.
7. She only wanted love.
8. I will probably need help to do it.
9. I have books by that author.

10. He has questions to ask.

little / few

1. There are students who want to learn French.
2. Claire has friends.
3. I have time, I can't wait for you.
4. Tom works hours every day, that is why he is always happy.
5. Lisa drinks water when she eats.
6. They have rooms in their house.
7. We have apples left. You should buy some more!
8. I have money. Can you lend me some?
9. People write letters nowadays; they use e-mails instead.
10. I think it is too salt for my taste.

much / many

1. We had snow last winter.
2. people were interested in the museum.
3. I have time.
4. There aren't gentlemen nowadays.
5. She has books.
6. There is water in the pond.
7. The professor spends time in company.
8. We have milk left.
9. There are mushrooms in my soup.
10. Not animals can survive in the desert.

so / such / such a

1. It's warm today that I'm going to the beach.
 2. We're please with these now towels that we're going to buy some more.
 3. We had good time that we hate to leave the party.
 4. There was crowd in the street that we could hardly move.
 5. They are boring people that we hate to visit them.
 6. It was delicious meal that we asked the chef for the recipe.
 7. This is beautiful piano!
 8. He has read that book many times that he knows it by heart.
 9. He wastes much time watching television that he never finishes his homework.
 10. Those are great moments that will never be forgotten.
-