

Name:

Modal verbs

Modal verbs often modify the main verb in a sentence to convey various shades of meaning such as possibility, necessity, obligation, permission, ability, and willingness

Part 1: Giving Advice with "Should" and "Shouldn't"

1.-It's raining outside. You _____ take an umbrella.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

2.-You _____ eat too much candy. It's not good for your teeth.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

3.-If you want to stay healthy, you _____ eat fruits and vegetables every day.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

4.-You _____ talk to strangers. It can be dangerous.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

5.-When you feel tired, you _____ go to bed early.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

6.-You _____ be rude to your classmates. It hurts their feelings.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

7.-You _____ drink water regularly to stay hydrated.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

8.-You _____ run in the hallways at school. It's not safe.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

9.-If you see someone who needs help, you _____ offer your assistance.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

10.- You _____ do your homework to get good grades.

- a) shouldn't
- b) should

Modal verbs

Part 2: Asking Permission with "Do you mind if..." and "Could"

1. _____ I borrow your pencil, please?
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

2. _____ I sit here?
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

3. _____ I open the window? It's very hot in here.
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

4. _____ you help me with this math problem?
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

5. _____ I use your eraser?
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

6. _____ you pass me the salt, please?
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

7. _____ I leave the table? I'm finished with my dinner.
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

8. _____ I take a look at your book?
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

9. _____ I have a glass of water?
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

10. _____ you tell me what time it is?
a) Do you mind if
b) Could

