

1. What does a bilingual dictionary give you?

- a. Headwords, definitions and example all in the same language
- b. Headwords in one language, and definitions and examples in another
- c. Headwords, definitions and examples in one language plus notes in another

2. Why do you consult someone or something?

- a. To get information or advice about something
- b. To understand their opinion better
- c. To help them with the problem they may have

3. What information does a cross reference give?

- a. A list of authors and their work on the same
- b. Links to other publications dealing with the same topic
- c. Directions for the where to find information on something in the same book

4. What information does a dictionary entry give you?

- a. Definition + examples
- b. Headword only
- c. Headword + definition + examples + collocations

5. Which is the headword in: bus: a large vehicle in which people are driven from one place to another?

- a. A bus
- b. large vehicle in which people are driven from one place to another
- c. bus: a large vehicle in which people are driven from one place to another

6. How many languages does a monolingual dictionary use?

- a. Two
- b. One
- c. More than two

7. What does a phonemic chart show?

- a. The mouth and where different sounds are formed
- b. The letters of the alphabet and the sounds they make
- c. The sounds of a language written in a special script

8. Which are examples of reference materials/ resources for teachers?

- a. Coursebook, lesson plans
- b. Grammar books, dictionaries
- c. Graded readers supplementary materials

9. What do you find in a teacher's book?

- a. Additional exercises for the teacher to test their own knowledge
- b. Practice activities for the teacher in use of classroom language
- c. Tips and information to help the teacher exploit the coursebook

10. How is a thesaurus different from a dictionary?

- a. It groups words according to their frequency
- b. It groups words according to their meaning
- c. It groups words according to their pronunciation