

Phrasal Verbs Related to Travel

Match the phrasal verbs with their definitions:

Phrasal verb			Definition
1.	check in		A. land
2.	go off		B. explore
3.	look around		C. start your journey
4.	run up		D. end you stay at a hotel
5.	touch down		E. start your stay at a hotel
6.	check out		F. return
7.	set off		G. say goodbye
8.	come back		H. accumulate
9.	see off		I. leave

check in	look around	run up	touch down	go off
check out	set off	come back	k see (somebody) off ingela and I went t	o Puerto Rico las	t year. We	at 7ar	n and my parents at the airport. Th	nere was a huge qu	eue when we	but ortunately we boar	ded the plane on	time. As soon we		we went to the otel, got out our b	ikinis and	to the beach. During the week we had lenty time to		We saw the B	acardi Rum Plant,	, the Ermita Espina uine and the Dunta	Boringuen Lighth	ouse. When we		_we had a shock.
ums und The runta

Your turn:

- Do you like it when people see you off at the airport / bus station or is it embarrassing? Why?
- 2. Have you ever run up a big hotel bill? What did it include?
- 3. When you go on holiday do you like to look around the area or relax by the pool?
- 4. When you go on a daytrip do you like to set off early? Why?
- 5. Do you get nervous when your plane takes off and touches down?
- 6. Have you ever gone on holiday and not wanted to come back?
- 7. What do you need to do before you set off on a holiday?

is LCollective What's the most annoying thing about checking in and out of a hotel?

