To all students

Thank you all for your hard work so that we can ease the burden of the flood victims.

They are very grateful for what we have done for them.

However, our efforts do not stop here. It turns out that there are still several areas that really need our hands.

Therefore, if you still have items that can be donated, please collect them to your class captain. The class captain will coordinate with the OSIS committee in distributing the donations.

Thank you
