

Jake

Michael

Preberi, kaj Jake pove o svojih vikendih pri dedku in babici (na levi strani). Potem pa dopolni še njegove povedi o bratrancu Michaelu. Uporabi besede, ki so obarvane rdeče, le malo jih spremeni, da bodo ustrezale tretji osebi ednine. GLEJ ZGLED.

I spend most weekends at home, but sometimes I visit my grandparents.	My cousin Michael visits them, too.
They live on a farm.	He is twelve, like me. He _____ not far away from our grandparents.
They have got cows and a horse.	He _____ a dog.
I often work in the stable with grandpa.	He often _____ in the field.
I sometimes feed the horse.	He sometimes _____ the cows.
I also brush it.	He never _____ the horse.
I sometimes ride it.	He _____ it from time to time.
I sometimes help grandma in the kitchen.	He also _____ grandma.
We cook lunch together.	He rarely _____ dinner.
I get up early at my grandparents' house.	He _____ up around half past seven.
In the evening I am tired and I go to bed around nine o'clock.	He _____ to bed at half past nine.

Jake pove tudi nekaj o tem, česa ne mara ali ne počne. Dopolni tisto, kar Jake pove o Michaelu z glagoli tako, da dobiš nikalne povedi. GLEJ ZGLED.

I don't drive a tractor. I'm too young.	Michael is as young as me. He doesn't drive a tractor either.
I don't like potatoes.	Michael _____ pasta.
I don't watch sport on TV.	Michael watches sport on TV, but he _____ films.
I don't play computer games.	Michael _____ an instrument.
I don't live on a farm.	Michael _____ on a farm either.

LIVEWORKSHEETS