

Jake

Michael

Preberi, kaj Jake pove o svojih vikendih pri dedku in babici (na levi strani). Potem pa dopolni še njegove povedi o bratrancu Michaelu. Uporabi besede, ki so obarvane rdeče, le malo jih spremeni, da bodo ustrezale tretji osebi ednine. GLEJ ZGLED.

I spend most weekends at home, but sometimes I visit my grandparents.

They live on a farm.

They have got cows and a horse.

I often work in the stable with grandpa.

I sometimes feed the horse.

I also brush it.

I sometimes ride it.

I sometimes help grandma in the kitchen.

We cook lunch together.

I get up early at my grandparents' house.

In the evening I am tired and I go to bed around nine o'clock.

Jake pove tudi nekaj o tem, česa ne mara ali ne počne. Dopolni tisto, kar Jake pove o Michaelu z glagoli tako, da dobiš nikalne povedi. GLEJ ZGLED.

I don't drive a tractor. I'm too young.

I don't like potatoes.

I don't watch sport on TV.

I don't play computer games.

I don't live on a farm.

My cousin Michael visits them, too.

He is twelve, like me. He _____ not far away from our grandparents.

He _____ a dog.

He often _____ in the field.

He sometimes _____ the cows.

He never _____ the horse.

He _____ it from time to time.

He also _____ grandma.

He rarely _____ dinner.

He _____ up around half past seven.

He _____ to bed at half past nine.

Michael is as young as me. He doesn't drive a tractor either.

Michael _____ pasta.

Michael watches sport on TV, but he _____ films.

Michael _____ an instrument.

Michael _____ on a farm either.

