

RESTAURANT MODALS

We use modals like "would", "will" and "can" in restaurant language.

What would you like?

I will have the fish.

Can I have a napkin?

II. Choose the correct words.

1. A. What would you like / will you like with your pizza?
B. I 'll have / can have a salad, please.
2. A. Do you like / Would you like curry rice?
B. I don't know. I've never tried it.
3. A. Will you like / Would you like dessert?
B. Yes. I 'd like / do want a brownie.
4. A. Will I have / Can I have a new fork?
B. Certainly. I 'd / 'll bring one right away.
5. A. Do you like / Would you like mushrooms for breakfast?
B. No, thanks. I 'd / 'll just have some toast.
6. A. I 'd have / 'll have a burger please.
B. Right. Will you have / Would you like chips with that?
7. A. Do you want / Would you want some soup?
B. Actually, I 'd have / 'll have a salad please.
8. A. How would you like / will you like your steak done?
B. Medium rare, please.

