

The Journey to New Beginnings

Tom had always dreamed of starting his own business. One sunny morning, he his house with high hopes and a clear plan. His friend, Jane, had agreed to him and drive him to the city where they planned to their new venture.

When they got in to the city, they decided to for a bit at a nearby café to finalize their plans. Tom had recently with his girlfriend and was trying to the heartbreak. Jane was supportive and always knew how to cheer him up.

They discussed how they could expenses to save money for their startup. Jane suggested they should a detailed budget to manage their finances better. After a few hours of brainstorming, they a brilliant business idea.

It was time to work. They found a small office space and started to The first few weeks were tough, but Tom knew he had to the challenges to achieve his dream.

As they worked hard to establish their business, things slowly began to They gained new clients and saw their efforts paying off. Tom felt happier and more confident as he adapted to his new life.

Eventually, their business started to, and everything worked out even better than they had hoped. Tom realized that with determination and the right support, he could overcome any obstacle and achieve his dreams.

Fill in the gaps with the phrasal verbs below in the correct form:

1. Come up with
2. Cut back on
3. Get down to
4. Get in
5. Get over
6. Hang on
7. Pick somebody up
8. Put up with
9. Set off
10. Set up
11. Settle in
12. Split up
13. Take off
14. Work out x2