

Fill the gaps in the synopsis using the words given

Otto Anderson (Tom Hanks) is a _____, rude, old man who's lost the _____ to live. His wife, Sonya (Rachel Keller), the love of his life, died six months ago and Otto has been _____ into retirement. Seeing no reason to continue to live, Otto attempts _____ on several occasions, and by different _____, but each time he _____ for one reason or another.

When a young family moves in across the road, Otto is _____ for the persistent and chatty Marisol (Mariana Travino), who manages to _____ her way into his life. Together with her husband, Tommy (Manuel Garcia-Rulfo), and their two delightful daughters, Luna (Christiana Montoya) and Abbie (Alessandra Perez), Marisol _____ new purpose and joy to Otto's life.

unprepared      fails      grumpy      forced desire      wedge      means suicide      brings

