Reading

10 Read the adverts for different restaurants. Which restaurant is suitable for the different people?
Match the sentences (1–6) with the restaurants (A–C).

A Green Eating

Green Eating is a new vegetarian sandwich and salad bar/restaurant in the shopping centre. Our chef is famous and often prepares food on TV. He makes amazing food (without meat, of course). He always uses delicious fresh fruit and vegetables from our own farm for our very interesting and unusual dishes! The food here at Green Eating is not expensive, and you can eat in the restaurant or take the food away. And it's good for you. Come in and try!

B Really FAST!

Come to Really FAST! for food that's fast and really delicious! Our food is prepared quickly and so is perfect for special days, like birthdays or other parties! Here at Really FAST! you can find everything you love – fast food, burgers, chips, cakes, chocolate, ice cream, fizzy drinks ... everything for that special treat! There are no long waits in our restaurant and we offer good value for money. Pay just £9.50 per person and eat and drink everything you want. See you soon!

C Ciao!

Come and try our new Italian restaurant by the lake in the park. We serve all your favourites – pizza, pasta, chicken, fish and salads. We make everything here in the restaurant from excellent ingredients – including our own very special ice cream with ten different flavours to choose from. We can make food for parties (maximum 20 people) and for a small extra cost we can make your birthday cake, too. Come to Ciao! and ask for our special party menu. But hurry – we are always busy!

- 1 David doesn't like fresh salads or fruit.
- 2 Sheila doesn't eat fast food or anything made from dairy products.
- 3 Peter wants to have a healthy snack.
- 4 Hayley wants a special cake for her birthday party.
- 5 Alison is inviting lots of people and she likes fast food which is cheap.
- 6 Dan wants to have a party in a nice location with outdoor space.
