

Worksheet B

1 Listen to your partner's sentences and say if they are right or wrong.

Your classmate has to read some sentences, you say whether those sentences are right or wrong. The mistake can be in one of the words used in the sentences. Example

I need a part-time job. Incorrect.

It should be: I need part-time work.

2 Read out your sentences.

Now it's your turn to do the same.

You have to read your sentences to your classmate and he/she needs to say whether that sentence is correct or incorrect. If the guess is right, your classmate scores a point. You have the answer (correct or incorrect) and the right answer at the end of the sentence.
