

Once there was a  who went to the . He  a . People followed him. Soon there were .

Another  came. He went near the
. He  a . Many followed
him. Soon there were many .

The third  came. He went to the
. He  a . Many followed
him. Soon there were many .

The  lived together with other who built their  on the , ,
and .

Let's talk about the story.
Answer the following question.

1. How many groups of men built houses?

2. Where did they build their houses?

3. What can you say about the three men?

4. Why did other people follow them?

5. If you don't have a house of your own, what would you do?
