

Lily the       loved to visit her grandparents' farm every summer. Every day, she would help her grandfather feed the       and collect fresh       from the cows. One morning, while exploring the barn, Lily found an old       and a colorful       . She put on the jacket and ran outside to fly the kite. It flew high in the sky, and Lily felt very       . Later, her grandmother called her for lunch. They sat together in the ..... and enjoyed sandwiches and       . After lunch, Lily and her grandparents sat under a big tree and talked about their favorite memories. Lily felt lucky to have such a loving ..... and a wonderful place to visit.