REPÚBLICA DEL ECUADOR

UNIVERSIDAD TÉCNICA DEL NORTE
Acreditada Resolución Nro. 173-SE-33-CACES-2020
EMPRESA PÚBLICA "LA UEMPRENDE E.P."

MID-TERM EXAM
THIRD LEVEL

Name: _____ Class: 93 _____

Date: _____ Grade: _____/ 10

Signature: _____

LISTENING SECTION (0,5 points):

A. Listen to the conversation. Read each statement and write True, False or Not Mentioned

1. James is at Kevin's house. _____
2. Kevin's dad collected a lot of different things. _____
3. Kevin's dad organized a party for the neighbors. _____
4. James can help Kevin because he isn't busy today. _____
5. James agrees that Kevin should give everything away. _____

B. Listen to the conversation and choose a correct answer.

6. Where is the conversation taking place?

a. In a university classroom
b. In a high school cafeteria
c. In front of a building
d. In a department store

7. What grade is Jessica in?

a. Freshman
b. Sophomore
c. Junior
d. Senior

8. Where is the new student from?

a. From Japan
b. From China
c. From Korea
d. From Hong Kong

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. Why did Jessica go to Japan?
    a. For a school exchange program
    b. For a family vacation
    c. To learn Japanese
    d. For her father's business trip
10. Jung Min invited Jessica…
    a. To her class
    b. To her neighborhood
    c. To her church
    d. To her hometown

READING SECTION (0,5 points):

A. Read the passage and choose the correct option.

My city

I live in a dangerous city - San Salvador, the capital of El Salvador. It's not easy to live here, but I love it! Here are my tips for tourists who come to visit us.

1. Stay in a safe area

There are some areas where you can walk around and see beautiful things. In Colonia Escalón, there are lots of nice hotels, and the big shopping mall, Multiplaza, is there too. You can also go to Parque Cuscatlán. There's a modern art museum there, and a clinic (just in case).

2. Don't use public transport

The buses are very old and dangerous. If you want to go somewhere, take a taxi. But don't get one on the street. Ask at your hotel or hostel to call a taxi for you.

3. Visit our beautiful places

We have some amazing places in San Salvador, so don't stay in your hotel all day. Go out and see them! The cathedral is beautiful, and the national theatre is very famous. Then, in front of the Palacio Nacional, there's a monument called 'El Salvador del Mundo' (Saviour of the World). It's a sculpture of Jesus Christ. It's incredible!

4. Be careful with your things

Like in any big city, you need to be careful with your bag and your camera. If you're walking along the street and someone wants to take your bag, give it to them. Your bag is not important - your life is.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Try our food

In San Salvador, we have some delicious food. You must try pupusas. They're tortillas with cheese, beans, meat, or vegetables inside. You can eat them with tomato sauce and cabbage salad. They're fantastic!

6. Speak Spanish

Not many people speak English in El Salvador. If you learn a few words and phrases in Spanish, it will be easier for you to communicate with people. And we'll love you!

I hope you visit us soon. I'm sure you'll love San Salvador as much as I do!

1. What is the primary reason the author loves living in San Salvador?

A. The city's beautiful tourist attractions

B. The delicious local cuisine

C. The friendly and welcoming people

D. The author does not explicitly state why they love living there

2. According to the text, which of the following is NOT a recommended tourist activity in San Salvador?

A. Visiting the national theatre

B. Exploring Parque Cuscatlán

C. Riding the city's public buses

D. Seeing the monument of the Saviour of the World

3. What advice does the text give regarding taxis in San Salvador?

A. Take taxis that are hailed on the street

B. Taxis are an unsafe mode of transportation

C. Use taxis arranged through your hotel or hostel

D. Taxis are the most affordable way to get around the city

4. How does the text describe the food typically found in San Salvador?

A. It is inexpensive and readily available

B. It is bland and unappetizing

C. It is diverse, with many international influences

D. It is delicious and worth trying, particularly the pupusas

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. What does the text suggest about the English proficiency of people in San Salvador?

A. Most residents speak English fluently

B. Few people speak English, so learning Spanish is helpful

C. English is widely spoken in tourist areas

D. The author does not provide any information about English proficiency

B. Read the text and circle True (T), False (F) or Not Mentioned (NM) according to the sentence given.

Eccentric collector

Mr. Brown was a rich man. He had a big house and two cars, but he didn't have much money in the bank. He used his money to buy things.

Mr. Brown was an eccentric collector. He bought old things that nobody wanted. He loved auctions and often paid too much for something because he wanted it so much.

One day Mr. Brown went to an auction in London. There were many fancy objects for sale. A beautiful gold watch, a special silver cup, and a useful diamond ring were all there. But Mr. Brown wasn't interested in modern things. He liked things from the past. He waited and waited and finally, at the end of the auction, he saw just what he wanted. It was a very old key. The key was made of wood and it was very big. The people at the auction laughed when they saw it, but Mr. Brown didn't care. He wanted that key and he paid one thousand pounds for it. That night Mr. Brown took the key home. He looked at it and thought about its story. What did it open? He looked on the back of the key and saw some writing: 'The Key to the Secret Room'.

Mr. Brown started to look for the secret room. He looked everywhere but he couldn't find it. He looked in all the rooms in the house, in the garden, and even under the floor. Then one day he had an idea. He looked in the attic and there it was! The door to the secret room! Mr. Brown opened the door with his key and went inside. In the room there were lots of old things - chairs, tables, and pictures. But there was also something special. It was a box. Mr. Brown opened the box and inside was a beautiful diamond necklace. It was worth one million pounds. Mr. Brown smiled. His key wasn't useless after all!

Sentence	T	F	NM
6. Mr. Brown was a poor man with no possessions.
7. Mr. Brown invested all his money in the stock market.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. Mr. Brown had a unique taste in collecting items.
9. Mr. Brown always got the best deals at auctions.
10. The auction lasted for several days.

USE OF LANGUAGE (0,5 points)

A. Complete the space using the correct question word.

1. _____ are you smiling? Because I'm happy.
2. _____ will you be back? – at 5 o'clock.
3. _____ did you have for breakfast? – milk and cereal
4. _____ are you from? – Canada.
5. _____ is your father? – He's 45.

B. Complete the spaces using: since, for, yet, already, ever.

6. Have you _____ seen Titanic?
7. I have waited for this movie _____ a month.
8. I haven't seen her _____.
9. Celine has changed a lot _____ she got promoted.
10. I have _____ uploaded my homework to the SIIU.

C. Fill in with (a, an, ∅, the) to complete the sentence.

My mother is 11._____ English teacher. I am 12._____ student. When I get home from school, I watch 13._____ programs on TV. That's 14._____ best part of my day. The programs I watch are for 15. _____ children, so I think they are funny.

VOCABULARY

D. Complete the sentences with the words and phrases in the box.

are single	was born	live with my family	was raised	are married

16. I _____ in the 1980s. My birthday is June 18, 1984.
17. I _____ in a big city. I loved growing up in Hong Kong.
18. Both of my brothers _____. I don't have any sisters-in-law.
19. My best friend and I _____ to two amazing men. Now our husbands are friends, too.
20. I _____. I can't have my own apartment until I get a job.

LIVEWORKSHEETS