Top tips for backpackers

Travelling abroad is great fun, but there are a few simple rules you <sup>1</sup>  follow. First, you <sup>2</sup>  make sure you have all the documents you need – that’s really important. You <sup>3</sup>  take a few simple first aid products like painkillers and plasters. And you <sup>4</sup>  forget your phone! Remember to keep in touch with your parents while you’re away – you <sup>5</sup>  phone them every day, but you <sup>6</sup>  to phone or email at least once a week, otherwise they’ll get worried. Look after your money and documents carefully while you’re away.

You <sup>7</sup>  keep your passport safe – you can face a lot of problems if you lose it. And remember the date and time of your flight home. If you miss your flight, you <sup>8</sup>  pay for another one, and it will probably be expensive!
