GRASSLAND

Hey Kid! Have you ever wondered... where elephants live? Is there a place full of grass? What animals could live there?

Well, that's my home, and I need your help to solve a problem in there, but first you need to know it, watch this video to get some information, I hope you love it as much as I do.

Hi, I'm Zazu! and I'm the King's butler, there is supposed to be a big party for the baby prince, but the Hyenas chased away some of the animals.

Did you notice that the animals have an especial power?
Exactly, camouflage! This helps them hide from other predators or to feed on other animals and go unnoticed. Super cool right!
