30000-1208 Article 3: The Role of Technology in International Trade

1. What is the main topic of the article?	The role of technology in international trade.
2. How has technology impacted international trade?	It makes trade faster, cheaper, and more accessible.
3. What is the 'digital divide' mentioned in the article?	Technology has revolutionized international trade by making it easier, faster, and more efficient.
4. What are some of the overall benefits of technology in trade?	It refers to the gap between countries with access to modern technology and those without.
5. What is an example of how tariffs can affect product prices in a specific industry?	Technology is important for the future of international trade because it enhances efficiency and expands market reach, facilitating global economic growth.

LIVEWORKSHEETS