

12 Marriage and divorce

A Weddings

In the UK, it is the custom for many couples to get engaged before they get married. For the wedding itself, couples can choose a religious ceremony, for example in a church, or a civil ceremony, in a registry office or some other building. On the day of the wedding, the woman is called the bride, and the man is the groom. After the wedding, most married couples have a reception, followed by a honeymoon. During the reception, several people make speeches and wish the couple a happy marriage. On the same day every year after that, the couple celebrate their wedding anniversary.

B Divorce

Although most couples say they 'marry for life', recent statistics do not support this belief. Currently about 42% of married couples in the UK separate and get divorced, with the average marriage lasting about thirty years. Reasons for deciding to live apart vary, but certainly include money problems – which cause pressure in a relationship – lack of communication, one partner having a sexual relationship (an affair) with another person, constant arguments, and lack of equality in the relationship, e.g. if one person does all the housework, or one person makes all the decisions.

SPOTLIGHT separate v, adj

The verb separate means 'stop being together'. The adjective separate means 'away; not together'. Listen to the CD for the different ways they are pronounced.

- My parents separated when I was a child. (SYN split up)
- The older children are separate from the younger ones in the school.
