E Reading

• YouNique

Clothes! The only thing I love more than clothes is ... spending money on clothes! But I've been a bit disappointed with the choice available in my local shops. Because they are made to have mass appeal, they're the same as the clothes in everyone else's local shops. ¹ ____ That's why I buy things off the internet. There are plenty of online stores to browse. I try stuff on at home and return anything I don't like for a refund.

• XBoxBoy

Why spend your money on clothes? There are so many better things to do with it. I'm into gaming and bought an Xbox Series X last year. I knew it was the best games console to get because I'd seen the adverts about it on TV. I'd saved up for ages and finally had enough money to buy it. They weren't exaggerating – it's amazing! ² ____ My mum and dad say I spend too much money on them, but I don't agree.

• Pete01

You shouldn't believe what the advertisers say! Of course they say their product is the best ... they want you to buy it! I always read consumer reviews; they're more reliable. Last month I bought a tablet. I'd read hundreds of reviews about different ones online before I finally decided to spend my money on a Lenovo Smart TAB P10. It's a great product; the battery lasts for ages and I can do all kinds of things on it: listen to music, watch films, go online, anything really. ³ ____ It's a bit slow when you have lots of tabs open. But all in all, it's great value, and, because I'm still at college, I got a discount, too!

• Out&About

My parents taught me that it's experiences that bring you lasting happiness and that's what I like to spend my money on. My friends and I arrange to do something together about once a month: bike rides, camping trips, picnics and so on. Last month, we tried an escape room. I'd read about this kind of interactive game in a magazine and found out that there was one not far away. I don't want to give you all the details, but basically players are locked in a room and have to solve lots of puzzles to escape ... and you only have an hour. ⁴ ____ I've never been so excited!
