

1. Complete the sentences with the words from the box. There are two extra words.

sheer sense of	gaping	radical	holding their breath	a flurry of swirled around	visceral	replicate	reboot	packed out

1. This is a desperate situation which requires a truly solution.
2. Can we explain children's ability to understand human minds by their intelligence?
3. His approach to acting is rather than intellectual.
4. With their new movie they the classic Western.
5. Researchers tried many times to the original experiment.
6. Around 100,000 football fans the stadium to see the game.
7. Those days, business issues, people, and events students on a daily basis.
8. The prince's words on marriage have prompted speculation in the press this week.

2. Use the words from A and B to make compound adjectives.

A	far	well	far	slack	tight	highest	quick	ill	mind
B	witted	grossing	reaching	blowing	judged	meaning	fetched	fisted	jawed

3. Complete the sentences with the compound adjectives from Exercise 2.

1. These new laws will have benefits for all working mothers.
2. It was the independent film of 2008.
3. An tweet can do severe, instant damage.
4. Mr. Spitzer's statement Monday momentarily left state legislators
5. I know he's , but I wish he'd leave us alone.
6. Mr. Bleckner is friendly, , curious and well read.
7. Her story about being chased away from school by wolves seems pretty..... .
8. Don't wait for Gillian to buy you a drink - she's too..... .
9. The special effects in this film are pretty..... .