

1 What did Sam say to the Greycoats teacher (Peter) in the pub that day? Put their conversation in the right order, and write in the speakers' names. Peter speaks first (number 3).

- 1 _____ 'Thank you, Sam. Of course, we do take sport very seriously at Greycoats. Not like Hawkwood.'
- 2 _____ 'Of course they can. A Hawkwood team could beat your boys in a tetrathlon any day. No problem.'
- 3 _____ 'Hullo, Sam. What have you been doing today?'
- 4 _____ 'Well done. You must be very pleased.'
- 5 _____ 'Oh, come on, Sam! They couldn't do a tetrathlon! They can't shoot, run, swim, and ride – can they?'
- 6 _____ 'They weren't playing. I took them to watch the Northend United match. And what about you?'
- 7 _____ 'In the carpark? Right, let's go and look at them!'
- 8 _____ 'I took some Hawkwood children to the football.'
- 9 _____ 'Our boys have been competing in a tetrathlon today. They came first, too.'
- 10 _____ 'Listen. I'll enter a team next year. I've got four children out there in my car – they could do it.'
- 11 _____ 'Football? Who was your team playing against?'
- 12 _____ 'What do you mean, not like Hawkwood? Our children are very good at all kinds of sport!'
- 13 _____ 'Beat our Greycoats team? Not a chance, Sam!'
