

Defining Relative Clause

Directions: Combine the sentences using the correct relative pronoun.

1. She worked for a man. The man used to be an athlete.

2. The woman is our new boss. I met her yesterday.

3. We broke the computer. The computer belonged to my father.

4. She loves books. The books have happy endings.

5. They live in a city. The city is in the north of England.

6. The woman called the police. Her car had been stolen.

7. The only life insurance agency is Bangkok Good Life. I trust in life insurance agency.

8. The money is in the kitchen. The money belongs to John.

9. That is the man. His wife is a famous actress.

10. The television was stolen. The television was bought twenty years ago.

Non-defining Relative Clause

Directions: Combine the sentences using the correct relative pronoun.

1. I've applied for a job at the BBC. My mum used to work there.

2. The company has three hundred employees. They work in three different offices.

3. Robert Pattinson is a British actor. He plays Edward Cullen in The Twilight Saga.

4. Michael is a policeman. His father is a judge.

5. This smartphone takes great photos. I bought it last week.
