I'm Italian but I live in a small town in Austria. There's a big church downtown. The church has a famous clock above the door, it's over 800 years old. There's a large square in front of the church where the tourists take photos. There's a tall monument in the middle of the square too, the birds like to sit on his head! Behind the church, there are a lot of restaurants and bars, they're very expensive because of all the tourists and the food is often bad so I don't eat there. There's also a river in my town, it runs between the church. In the summer people go to the park behind the church and the river. There are some big old trees along the river, people like to sit under the trees and have picnics.

ABOUT ME MY PICS

3 Re-read and answer a-c.

- Where do tourists take photos?
- Are the restaurants in the square good places to eat? Why / Why not?
- Where is a good place to eat in the park?

4  6.7 Use the picture in 2 to make sentences. Follow the model.

Model: Park. Church. River.

You: The park is between the church and the river.

Model: Birds. Monument.

You: The birds are on the monument.

5 MAKE IT PERSONAL Are a-e true (T) or false (F) for your town?

- There were trams here fifty years ago.
- There was a lot of pollution, but it's clean now.
- There were a lot more cinemas a few years ago.
- There wasn't anywhere for children to play, now there are some play areas.
- There were some beautiful old buildings, but they aren't there now.

How about a BBQ on Sunday?

1 Read the text and answer a-d.

- Where is Glastonbury?
- When is the festival?
- What stopped the festival in 2012?
- How can you buy a ticket?

GLASTONBURY FESTIVAL

Glastonbury is a small, old, historical town in the heart of southwest England. But every summer, at the end of June, around a quarter of a million people arrive there to celebrate the Glastonbury Festival, making it one of the 20 biggest cities in Britain. The world-famous music and arts festival has something for everybody, and some very big stars. To many people it is simply the best festival in the world. There was no festival in 2012 because of the Olympic Games, but the 2011 festival was fabulous, as usual. To get a ticket for next year register online at www.glastonburyfestivals.co.uk.

Here we are now, entertain us. I feel stupid and contagious. Here we are now, entertain us.

Unit 6

6.2

P = presenter J = Jude

- P Hello and welcome to another episode of Project Renovation, the program where we visit people on the project of a lifetime as they rebuild, restore and renovate old houses. Today we're in Springfield, where Phillip and Jude are working on their house. Jude, what are you doing today?
- J Hi. Well, today we are working on the bathroom. Uh... In the original plans there was no bathroom, or toilet, so this is a big part of the project.
- P What? No bathroom! No toilet! That's unbelievable!
- J Well, there was a bathtub next to the fireplace in the living room and the... uh... the toilet was in the yard. Well, obviously, we want a toilet and a bathroom in the house, so Phillip is making a new bathroom above the utility room.
- P I see, and are there any other big differences?
- J Oh, yes, of course. In the original plans there was a kitchen and a dining room, but they were both very, very small. Oh, and there were no windows in the kitchen, so it was very dark. Uh... now we have one big room—the kitchen and the dining room are together—and new windows, so there is a lot of light.
- P That's great. So now you can cook here and...
- J Well, no, we can't cook here yet. There's no stove and no refrigerator, they are coming next week, I hope! Uh, at the moment we are using the microwave and eating a lot of pizza.
- P Hmm... healthy. So what do you like most about this house?
- J Well, I know that Phillip is very excited about his new office. And I really love the yard. There's space for children to run and play, when we start a family, of course.
- P Great. Well, thank you for talking to us, Jude. I'll visit again when you finish the house. Bye.
- J Yes, please do! Thanks for coming. Bye!

6.4

- A Wow, you look tired. What were you doing over the weekend?
- B Yeah, I am tired. I was at Mari's party on Saturday until really late.
- A Oh, gee! Was it a good party?
- B Yeah, it was great! It was on the beach and I was there until the morning.

- A Really?! You were there all night? Weren't you cold?
- B No, no, the night was warm, so it was OK.
- A That's cool!
- B Yeah, it was great. There were fireworks at midnight, and a lot of pizza for the guests. Mari doesn't like cake, can you believe it?
- A What? No cake? At a birthday party? I can't believe it! Well, was it a big party?
- B Hmm, there were about 30 people at the beginning, but there were only five on Sunday morning! It was a great night, but I am feeling it today! And I have to work!
- A Oh, well, drink a lot of coffee!

6.8

The organizers sold all the tickets in 4 hours. The tickets were £195 each. The festival is 5 days, but there's music on only 3 days. There were 60 stages. 1,300 recycling volunteers. There were over 2,200 performances. There were 3,225 toilets and there were 300 people cleaning them. There were over 170,000 people in the audience.

- A Welcome to Celebrity Present and Past. I'm Alyssa Meyers. Today in our studio we're interviewing pop singer Ginny Lomond. Ginny, thank you for being here today.
- G Hi, Alyssa.
- A Our viewers are so curious about your life. So, when did you start your career?
- G At the age of 12, actually. I was part of my school glee club.
- A Really? And where did you go to school?
- G I went to school here, in New York City.
- A Oh, so are you originally from New York?
- G No, I was born in Los Angeles, but my mother and I moved to New York when I was a baby.
- A When did you record your first album?
- G When I was 18, but it was a disaster!
- A No, that's not possible!
- G But it was! Then I recorded my second album in 2008. And I have to say, that one was a big success!
- A We know it was. Well, our lines are open. If you have a question for Ginny Lomond, call now. She'll answer the questions after the break.

Giving news

Unit 9

Are you sitting down?
Guess what!
I have some big news.
I just got the news. I'm so excited!
They accepted me at the med school.
We're getting engaged!

Intentions

Unit 9

Are you going to go to college or get a job?
Do you think you're going to be rich one day?
What are you going to do when you finish school?

Jobs

Unit 9

I can make a lot of money.
I help a lot of people.
I work alone.
I'm unemployed.
Listen, you know I told you I'm retiring. Well,...
You have to work long hours.

Leaving a message

Unit 9

Call me back when you get this message.
Could I ask you something?
Could you lend me your phone?
Hi, Ronnie! It's Carla.
I need to make a call.
