GERUNDS INFINITIVES

BARE INFINITIVES

Choose from: bare infinitive, infinitive with "to," and gerund.

1. She enjoys (swim / to swim / swimming) in the ocean.
2. He decided (quit / to quit / quitting) his job.
3. They discussed (open / to open / opening) a new branch.
4. It's fun (play / to play / playing) video games.
5. She hates (do / to do / doing) the dishes.
6. He agreed (meet / to meet / meeting) us at 7 PM.
7. They finished (build / to build / building) the house.
8. It's hard (believe / to believe / believing) the news.
9. She loves (dance / to dance / dancing) at parties.
10. He refused (apologize / to apologize / apologizing).
11. They suggested (go / to go / going) to the movies.
12. She plans (travel / to travel / traveling) next summer.
13. He mentioned (see / to see / seeing) her at the store.
14. It's impossible (solve / to solve / solving) this puzzle.
15. She started (cry / to cry / crying) during the movie.
16. He wants (learn / to learn / learning) Spanish.
17. They kept (talk / to talk / talking) all night.
18. It's easy (get / to get / getting) lost in this city.
19. She avoided (make / to make / making) eye contact.
20. He hopes (become / to become / becoming) a doctor.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

GERUNDS INFINITIVES

BARE INFINITIVES

Choose from: bare infinitive, infinitive with "to," and gerund.

1. They discussed (buy / to buy / buying) a new car.
2. She promised (call / to call / calling) back later.
3. He missed (see / to see / seeing) his friends.
4. It's important (stay / to stay / staying) hydrated.
5. She enjoyed (paint / to paint / painting) the landscape.
6. He pretended (be / to be / being) sick.
7. They postponed (leave / to leave / leaving) until tomorrow.
8. It's nice (meet / to meet / meeting) you.
9. She suggested (take / to take / taking) a walk.
10. Swimming is a great way to stay fit.
11. Reading helps improve your vocabulary.
12. Traveling broadens your horizons.
13. Cooking can be a lot of fun.
14. Writing requires a lot of creativity.
15. He needs (finish / to finish / finishing) his homework.
16. They agreed (work / to work / working) together.
17. She avoided (answer / to answer / answering) the question.
18. He loves (play / to play / playing) the guitar.
19. It's hard (focus / to focus / focusing) with noise.
20. She finished (read / to read / reading) the book.
21. He offered (help / to help / helping) with the move.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

GERUNDS INFINITIVES

BARE INFINITIVES

Choose from: bare infinitive, infinitive with "to," and gerund.

1. They continued (work / to work / working) on the project.
2. She likes (bake / to bake / baking) cookies.
3. He learned (drive / to drive / driving) last year.
4. It's difficult (make / to make / making) a decision.
5. She considered (change / to change / changing) her major.
6. He decided (stay / to stay / staying) home.
7. They enjoyed (watch / to watch / watching) the show.
8. It's important (exercise / to exercise / exercising) regularly.
9. She began (write / to write / writing) her essay.
10. He refused (listen / to listen / listening).
11. They mentioned (go / to go / going) to Paris.
12. It's easy (forget / to forget / forgetting) names.
13. She kept (talk / to talk / talking) after class.
14. He tried (open / to open / opening) the door.
15. Listening to music relaxes me.

LIVEWORKSHEETS