

A Fun Weekend for Tom and Lily

Complete the text with the past simple form of the verbs in brackets.

Tom and Lily are brother and sister, and they had a nice weekend.

On Saturday morning, they _____ (stop) by their friend Sam's house because Sam _____ (invite) them to play in his garden. They _____ (plant) flowers with Sam while they talked and _____ (laugh) a lot.

In the afternoon, Tom and Lily _____ (walk) to the park, where they _____ (climb) a big tree. After that, they _____ (play) on the swings until they got tired.

Later, they _____ (buy) ice cream and _____ (eat) while they _____ (watch) people pass by.

On Sunday, Tom and Lily's parents took them to the lake, where they _____ (sail) a small boat.

After sailing, they _____ (swim) in the lake, and the water was cool and refreshing.

When they got home, they _____ (read) a book together about adventures. Then, they _____ (cook) dinner with their parents. Tom _____ (help) cook the pasta.

Tom and Lily had a great time, and they were happy and ready for the new week.

Answer the questions about their weekend.

1. Who invited Tom and Lily to play in the garden?
2. What activities did Tom and Lily do at the park?
3. What did Tom and Lily do at the lake on Sunday?

