

1.

Both of my [redacted] are taller than me. My dad is pretty tall, but my brother is even taller than my dad. Together they look like a [redacted] team! My sister and I are the [redacted] ones in the family.

2.

My brother isn't interested in [redacted] at all. He's into [redacted], like my [redacted]. But I'm not interested in cars. I play the [redacted] and the piano. I guess I love music because of my [redacted]. She sings beautifully. She plays the piano really well, too.

3.

I love [redacted]. I have a dog and I keep a couple of [redacted] in a big cage in my room. I love taking photographs of wild birds when I'm in the countryside. My dad and I often go away for the weekend and we have a great time [redacted]. My sister thinks I'm crazy. When my sister has free time, she loves to play cards. I can't stand card games.

4.

I enjoy [redacted]. I read a lot of [redacted] and I love going to the library. My dad likes outdoor things. He's really into sports and swimming, and he always tells me I should get more interested in [redacted]. But Mom tells me that reading is the best way to learn. She always gives me books that she's been reading.

5.

I'm very interested in [redacted]. I'm always teaching myself new computer programs and I have a lot of great software. My brother and I spend all our free time in computer stores and on the [redacted]. My [redacted] is more interested in the arts. She likes music and she loves to read. She [redacted] computers!

6.

I love [REDACTED] My mother and I go to a different place every [REDACTED]. Both of us love to learn new things about cultures. My father never goes with us because he [REDACTED] flying. My older sister is in college, so she stays [REDACTED] and studies while we're away. Sometimes I wish my sister and my father would travel with us because I miss them.