Inversions (adding emphasis)

Rewrite the sentences using inversions:

I had just started reading when the lights went out.
No sooner had I started reading than the lights went out.

1. We had never seen such a wonderful scenery.

   At no time

2. They not only disliked the food, but they also hated the service.

   Not only

3. We had started to eat when we heard someone at the door.

   Hardly

4. I have never read such an English novel before.

   At no time

5. After Leonidas had gone to sleep, his cellphone rang.

   No sooner

6. Celia couldn't destroy the evidence before the police arrived

   Never