

CONVERSATION 1:

- a. Did you have a good _____?
- b. I had a good _____ last week. I did something that I ... for the first time I _____ a brand-new car.

CONVERSATION 2:

- a. Did you have a good _____?
- b. Yes, I _____.
- a. What _____ you do?
- b. It was Labor Day weekend, so I _____ to the Casino on _____, and then went to a few parties, and then my friend's _____ was _____, so we actually hung around Beverly Hills and stuff.
- a. So, what did you do in Beverly Hills?
- b. We.. uh ... Well I caught... caught up with them latter _____ they went like... I guess _____ star searching or _____ like that and we met up at like Cheesecake Factory that _____ nice.

CONVERSATION 3:

- a. Did you have a good _____?
- b. Oh, yes. We're on the Spring break now, so I'm particularly _____.

a. _____ did you do?

b. Uh, _____ I went for a walk at the Silver Lake Reservoir, and then I _____ have my kids, 'cause my kids' dad and I are just split up, so _____ were with their dad, and so I _____ for a _____ around the Silver Lake Reservoir, and... What did I do? And _____ I came home and did some _____ for a project that I have to do. That was it. And then I _____ my kids.

CONVERSATION 4:

a. Did you have a good _____?

b. I did. I did. I had a nice _____ three-day-weekend, so found out this weekend _____ a boy.

a. So, what did you do this weekend?

b. Uh, see... _____ I found out I was _____ have a boy, then... Uh, _____ I did my taxes. Last _____ . Yeah, I did my taxes and just went out with the kids, and today we _____ to church this morning, and then we're here at the park.

CONVERSATION 5:

a. Did you have a good _____?

b. I did. I went to _____ food at Colombo's in Eagle Rock, and then we _____ to the brewery art walk _____.

b. Who did you go _____?

a. My _____, Janice.