EXERCISES

Build the adverbs. 1. crazy	2. typical
3. tidy	4. false
5. necessary	6. democratic
7. complete	8. true
9. angry	10. terrible
11. daily	12. funny
13. gentle	14. easy
Colin and Brenda are brother and sadverbs.	ister. But they're very different. Put in the Colin is the perfect pupil. He's good at	all his school subjects. In a test he usually answers correctly (correct). In class h	ne listens (careful) to his teacher, and at home he works	(quiet) in his room. Before he goes to bed, he puts all his books away	(tidy). Brenda doesn't take life so (serious). When she	e has homework, she does it very (quick). She always of	carries her stereo around, and she sings
(loud) to the music	c. She knows the words
(perfect). She sings	. (fantastic) Her other hobby is 70 17-40-17-18-18-18-18-18-18-18-18-18-18-18-18-18-	cause she gets lots of practice. When she plays with her friends, she wins
with her mends, she wins	(casy).
Susan is a Sports reporter. She's de competition for schools. Complete	oing a radio commentary about an athletics
The runners look      The girls are standing.
<ol><li>The girls are standing</li></ol>	(nervous) at the start.
3 May takes athletics you	(corious)
Max takes athletics very      Garv is rupping a
Gary is running a	(good) race.
<ol> <li>Gary is running a</li> <li>Karen is finishing</li> </ol>	(good) race. (strong).
<ol> <li>Gary is running a</li> <li>Karen is finishing</li> <li>Joanne must feel very</li> </ol>	(good) race. (strong). (sad).
<ol> <li>Gary is running a</li> <li>Karen is finishing</li> </ol>	(good) race (strong) (sad) (good).