TEST YOURSELF

B Migration: a personal experience

Moving from my native country was a huge culture shock. There was a lot to get used to – not least of all the food! But I didn't suffer the prejudice or hostility that some migrants experience. For the most part, people have accepted me for what I am, including my religious faith. They've seen beyond the stereotype. And for my part, I recognize the need for integration in order to be able to live in peace with my neighbours. I still have feelings of nostalgia for my country of origin, and I suppose I will always be a foreigner in some respects; but this is home now, and I have no desire to go back.
