Shopping

Shopping is an important part of people's lives. People often want to buy different things at good prices. In English-speaking countries, these types of shops are popular:

- ★ Charity shops: People give these shops clothes, books and other things they don't use or want anymore. These shops then sell these things to other people. Charity shops give the money they make to help others.
- ★ Street markets: In these open-air markets, people sell vegetables, cheese, honey and other local items.
- ★ Shopping centres: These are big, modern buildings with lots of shops and places to eat. In the United States, shopping centres are called 'malls'.

SHOPPING SURVEY

We asked three teens in three different countries 'Where do you do your shopping?' Here are their answers.

1

Mark, age 14

📍 Seattle, USA

Where: Northgate Mall, near Seattle

Why? I shop at Northgate Mall because there are lots of different stores and places to eat. I like listening to music and there is an excellent choice of technology stores in the mall. I also like Northgate Mall because it is near my house and I can walk or cycle there. I don't have a lot of pocket money, but I don't mind because I can look at things in different shops and go window shopping!

2

Karen, age 13

📍 Dublin, Ireland

Where: Charity shops on Camden Street, Dublin

Why? I haven't got a lot of pocket money, so I need to shop carefully. Every penny counts! One way I save money is shopping at charity shops. I love going shopping in Dublin and I really love Camden Street. Some of the charity shops only have clothes people donate, but others have jewellery, other accessories and furniture.

3

Pavlo, age 13

📍 Poltava, Ukraine

Where: Street market in Poltava

Why? I love cooking and once a week, I go with my mum and dad to the street market to get fresh fruit and vegetables. The food at the market is from local farms and my parents say the prices are great. We buy special acacia honey at the street market for making sweets. We also like drinking milk with honey on cold winter days.
