

The Tortoise and the Hare

Let's Read

Once upon a time, there was a hare and a tortoise. The hare liked to tease the tortoise about being so slow. One day, the hare invited the tortoise for a race want to show how fast he is. The tortoise agreed.

At the day of the race, all the animals came to watch. "3,2,1, start!" yelled the judge. The hare quickly run ahead, leaving the tortoise far behind, climbing.

The hare kept running, looked back and saw the tortoise far behind. The hare thought, "The tortoise is so slow! I think I can win even I take a short break." So the hare lay down under a tree and fell asleep. The tortoise kept walking, slow and steady, without stopping.

After a long time, the hare woke up. He looked around and did not see the tortoise. "That slow tortoise must still far behind me," he thought, and started to run again, think he can get to the finish line earlier than the tortoise.

But when the hare got to the finish line, he saw the tortoise there, already finished. The tortoise had won the race!

The hare was very surprised and felt silly. The tortoise smiled and said, "Slow and steady wins the race."
