

Day 4: Vocabulary

An interjection is a short word or phrase used to show strong feeling:

Eg: "Hooray! We're having a party," the animals shouted.

An interjection is followed by an exclamation mark.

aha ah alas bravo
eek oh oops ouch
psst ssh ugh well
whew wow darn
hey aw hurry

Write the interjection in the following sentences in the line provided.

1. "Hurry up! We'll be late for the party," Mongoose said to Frog. _____
2. "Good! The musician have arrived," cried Frog. _____
3. "Wow! What a pretty dress you're wearing" said Mr. Jackfruit. _____
4. "Ouch!" cried Mrs. Mango. "You step on my toe." _____
5. "Hey! It's my turn to dance with Mrs. Mango," said Frog. _____
6. "Oh dear! I've turn my skirt," said Agouti. _____
7. "Well done!" everyone said to the drummers. _____
8. "Shhh! There's someone watching," whispered snake. _____
9. Ouch! My cut hurts. _____
10. Wow! I won the lottery. _____
11. Oh, I am not sure about that. _____
12. Alas, we made it to the island. _____
13. Hooray! We won the championship. _____
14. Aha! I found the answer! _____
15. Good grief, that was a close one. _____

