

Shopping Holidays

People usually travel for different reasons: to relax, to visit historical places or to get a suntan. But more and more people now travel the world looking for a good discount! Here are some top shopping destinations around the world:

- Hong Kong- It's considered the best place in East Asia to make a good deal, but be careful with the shop assistants, who can persuade even the most experienced customers to buy something they don't really want or need!
- Madrid- You can find special offers in more than 50,000 shops around town, but don't miss El Rastro, an enormous street market with lots of amazing bargains.
- Mexico- Shoppers from around the world come here to buy very cheap, but high-quality, hand-made goods.
- Bangkok The secret of its huge outdoor markets is to bargain with the sellers. Never accept the first price and you can even get a product half-price!
- One last tip: Just make sure you have room for all your purchases in your luggage!
