

Tom and His Dog

Tom is a young boy who loves spending time with his dog, Max. Every morning, he wakes up early to take Max for a walk. They walk around the neighborhood, and Tom talks to Max about his day. Max listens and wags his tail.

Tom's sister, Anna, also loves Max. She often joins them on their morning walks. She likes running with Max and watching him chase birds. Sometimes, they all stop by the local bakery where the owner, Mrs. Green, gives Max a treat. Tom and Anna love to see Max get excited about his

In the afternoons, Tom and Anna go to school, but they always hurry home to be with Max. He waits for them by the door, his tail wagging fast. They take Max to the park where they meet other children with their dogs. Tom plays fetch with Max while Anna talks to her friends.

On weekends, Tom and Anna take Max on special trips. They pack a picnic and go to the countryside. Tom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, drive them there. They all have a great time exploring the fields and woods. Max is very happy, running around and smelling new things.

Tom's father, Mr. Brown, shows them how to fly a kite. Anna tries it first, and then Tom does. Max barks happily, chasing the shadow of the kite on the ground. When they sit down for their picnic, Max lies beside them, tired from all the running.

In the evening, they go home. Tom gives Max a bath, and Anna dries him with a towel. Max looks very clean and fluffy. Tom hugs him tightly and says, "I love you, Max." Max licks Tom's face, making him laugh.

As they go to bed, Tom thinks about their day. He feels happy to have his family and his dog, Max. He knows that with Max by his side, every day is fun.
