Reading Comprehension

Abhishek Verma is an Indian archer. a He has won many medals, including a gold medal in the team category and a silver in the individual category at the 2014 Asian Games. He's a truly impressive athlete. But for Abhishek, archery is more than a pastime, it's a lifestyle. He even practices at home! However, since archery is an outdoor sport, he can't practice inside his home. Instead, he has a target on the rooftop of his house.

In addition to playing the sport, Abhishek has more recently become an archery coach. One great thing about Abhishek, which makes him an amazing player as well as an excellent coach, is his cheerful and joyful attitude. b Whether he's winning or losing, he's always impressed people with his sportsmanship. He's very happy when he wins, and proud to contribute to the collection of medals his country has, but he doesn't stop believing in himself when he loses. c "Look, when I lose I try to learn from my mistakes and work on them for future tournaments," he said in one interview. He goes on to talk about how memorable it was to win at the Asian Games. d

Since Abhishek plays, coaches, and also works full-time, he hasn't got a lot of time to spare. Presently, he's focusing all his energy on making it to the next Olympic Games.
