A Dream Come True

Everyone is born with a talent. What is your talent?

Britain's Got Talent

Have you ever watched the TV program "Britain's Got Talent"? It's a talent show, and it is popular all over the world. Usually young good- looking people perform in this competition, but sometimes there are exceptions.

The Competition

Susan Boyle from Scotland was an exception. She didn't look like a pop star. She was much older than the other singers. Her hairstyle and her clothes were old–fashioned. But, she always wanted to be a singer, so she decided to try her luck.

At first, it wasn't easy. When Susan walked onto the stage, everyone laughed and made fun of her. No one understood why she was there. But, when she began to sing the song "I Dreamed a Dream", the audience stopped laughing. Everyone started clapping and cheering. They loved her. She sang like an angel.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Susan Boyle Today

After her amazing performance, Susan became very popular. Millions of people watched her video on the Internet. They loved her beautiful voice. Today, Susan feels good about herself. She has recorded her first CD and gives performances all over the world. She says. "There is happiness out there for everyone who dares to dream".

LIVEWORKSHEETS