

I let my soul fall into you
I never thought I'd fall right through
I fell for every word you said
You me feel I you
And forced my heart to think it's true
But I found I'm powerless with you

Already saved my life
I already saved my life
Already saved my life
I already saved my life

Now I don't need your wings to fly
No, I don't need a hand to hold in mine this time
You held me down, but I free
I the love inside of me
Now I don't need a hero to survive
Cause I already my life

I fell into your fantasy
But that's all our love will ever be
I hope in saving you and me
You think I'm lost, falling apart
But your lies just made a
My life is just about to start

Now I don't need your wings to fly
No, I don't need a hand to hold in mine this
time
You held me down, but I broke free
I found the love inside of me
Now I don't need a hero to survive
Cause I already saved my life
