

Gingerbread for Liberty

Instructions: Remember about the story “Gingerbread for Liberty”. Read each sentence and put them in the correct place.

Text Organization Chronological Order

Title _____

First

Next

Then

Last

A big revolution started and the gingerbread baker decided to go and fight for America.

The baker convinced General Washington to let him go and persuade the army that they were not the enemies.

The British gave up and America won the revolution thanks to the baker's gingerbread.

Everyone in Philadelphia knew the gingerbread baker for his skill, booming laugh, and kind heart.